

YELLOW DOGS IN POLITICS

A New Organization That Will Put Out a Council Ticket in Fredericksburg.

THE PEA CROP IS SHORT

A Buoy in Rappahannock Moved Out of Place by Ice Causes Vessels to Go Aground.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., April 27.—The City Council last night authorized the awarding to Cartright and Davis, of this city, the contract for paving Main Street from Charlotte to Prussia, down Prussia to Princess Anne and thence to the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad depot, with granite spalls, granite curb and granite sidewalks. Contracts were also awarded for continuation of the sewerage system, a portion of the work to be done by George W. Hoffman and another part by E. J. Cain and Co.

THE YELLOW DOGS.
Local politics are already warming up for the coming election in June. A local organization, known as the Yellow Dogs, will put out a Council ticket, and most of the present members of the City Council will be candidates for re-election. Mr. H. Lewis Wallace, a present member, declines to run again. There are two candidates for Mayor, Thomas P. Wallace and George John T. Goodrich. Mayor M. G. Willis will not be a candidate for re-election. The election takes place June 10.

SLIGHT PEA CROP.

The English pea crop along the Rappahannock River this year is late and will be short, and the usual amount of revenue will not be derived from that source. The largest crops are grown in Essex county. There the farmers raise from two bushels to one hundred bushels each. At the height of the pea season extra steamers are required to convey the crop to market. The soil of the Rappahannock Valley is particularly adapted to the cultivation of this crop and larger areas would be raised, but for the scarcity of labor.

A FALSE GUIDE.

A government buoy in the Rappahannock River, off Mulberry Island near Tappanhook, was moved by the ice during the breaking up of the last freeze of the winter and serious trouble has resulted for various sailing craft. The buoy instead of guiding the vessels, whose captains are strangers to the Rappahannock waters, has the effect of setting them in shoal water, with the result that many of them have run aground and remained for several days. A large vessel loaded with corn went aground at this point, owing to the wrong position of the buoy, and was not able to get away for a whole week.

NORTHAMPTON DRY.

No Liquor Licenses Granted Outside of Cape Charles.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CAPE CHARLES, VA., April 27.—The City Council last night granted licenses to all the saloons. The license tax was increased from $15 to $20.
The Council also levied a tax of $1.00 per annum on trading-stamp concerns. Judge J. W. G. Blackstone held a special term of court here yesterday morning. There were no applicants except those from Cape Charles and Sunnyside and the latter did not have the required number of signatures on their applications. Judge Norton was in court yesterday, May 1st, with the exception of Cape Charles.

AN ELEGANT WEDDING.

Miss Roberta Blanton Burruss Bride of Mr. Norvell Anderson.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., April 27.—Mr. Norvell Anderson, of Richmond, and Miss Roberta Blanton Burruss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Burruss, of this city, were united in marriage at the Baptist Church here this evening at 4:45 o'clock. Rev. Dr. S. Dunaway, assisted by Rev. R. H. Carter, officiated. The church was handsomely decorated with palms, plants, cut flowers, etc. The maid of honor was Miss Bessie S. Hynson, of this city, and best man, Herbert Francis, of Richmond. The ushers were Messrs. H. P. Crismond, T. M. Braden, John W. L. Burdette, and L. Burdette. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson left on the evening train for an extended tour, during which they will visit the World's Fair at St. Louis.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PACES, VA., April 27.—One of the most fashionable weddings of the season was celebrated at 4 o'clock this evening, when Miss Florence Hudson and Mr. Charles Manning, of this place, were married in Arbor Church by Rev. T. S. Wilson. Every detail of the ceremony was CHANGING SENTIMENT.

Oliver Goldsmith's "Deserted Village." Goldsmith in his "Deserted Village," spoke of a certain chapel where those who "went to seek, remained to pray." So in life one often lingers at what he does not understand and later, when he does understand, his laugh turns to praise. There were some who doubted the merits of Newborn's "Herpicide," but when he had tried it, they are now among its best friends and strongest endorsers. Herpicide kills the germ that eats the hair off at the root, and the hair then grows again. As a hair dresser, it is indispensable. Try it. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Owens and Minor Drug Co., Special Agents.

marked with the strictest elegance and good taste. The church and house decorations were in green, pink and white, and were most ornate and elaborate. The bridal chorus from Lohengrin and Mendelssohn's wedding march marked the entrance and exit of the bridal party, and was rendered by Mrs. W. A. Osborne. The bride came into church with her brother, Mr. George Hudson, who gave her away. She wore a handsome gown of white silk, and her veil fell in graceful folds and was worn with a coronet wreath of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of white roses and maidenhair ferns. The maid of honor, Miss Bessie Sutherland, wore white silk with pink and green tulle, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

The bridesmaids, Miss Lillian Haymes, Miss Irene Sutherland, Miss Trixie Hawmes, Miss Mamie Waddell, Miss Ruth Barksdale, Miss Maude Oliver, Miss Lela Sutherland and Miss Bessie Osborne, wore charming frocks of white silk with pink and green tulle, and carried showers of apple blossoms and white ribbons.

Proceeding the bride came little Eliza Pierce, bearing the ring on a silver waiter.

Mr. Josh Barksdale was best man. Messrs. Hudson, of Asheville, N. C.; James A. Ferrell, Eugene Miller, of Danville; J. T. Sutherland, Russell Derrick, of Richmond; John W. L. Burdette, of H. A. Hudson, Jr., were groomsmen. Messrs. Barksdale, of Brooklyn; Crockett, of Danville; Reynolds, of Elmo, and Trevilian, of Sutherland, were ushers.

GIRL STUDENT DEAD.

Miss Georgia Reeves Victim of Typhoid Fever at Lynchburg.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., April 27.—Miss Georgia Reeves, a student of Randolph-Macon Woman's College, died last night at St. Andrew's Home, from typhoid fever, from which she had been suffering for a month past. She was a daughter of Dr. R. H. Reeves, of Asheville, N. C., and was in her twentieth year. Miss Reeves had been in Lynchburg for the past two years and was a very popular student, being much admired for her beauty and lovely traits of character.

THE BALL TRIAL.

Accused Placed on the Stand and Made a Good Witness.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHATHAM, VA., April 27.—A preliminary trial of the murder of George Ball, for murder, this afternoon. The prisoner was kept on the stand for some time and made a good witness in chief and on cross-examination. Thomas Ball, brother of the accused, and who was Jerry in the trial with him, was examined during the forenoon, but did not make as good witness as the prisoner. Instructions were argued late in the afternoon, and argument will be heard this morning and consume most of the day.

AN ICE PLANT PROJECTED

Its Coming Dependant on Securing a Lot—The Late R. W. Collier's Will Is Probated.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., April 27.—An agent representing capitalists was in Petersburg a few days ago prospecting for a site to build an ice manufactory, cold storage plant and skating rink in this city. He found a site that would meet all requirements, and one that is considered by him an ideal location for the plant. It fronts on one of the principal streets, and would give a street level entrance to the skating rink and office. The only hindrance that appears is the fact that a lot in the rear of the site would be necessary, and this lot is owned by the late R. W. Collier. The agent interested will not consent to let the agent stated that upon the purchase of this lot will depend the building of the plant in Petersburg.

COURT-MARTIAL.
A general court-martial was held today at the memory of the Petersburg Cavalry, in the Library Hall, for the purpose of trying Walter Beasley on a charge of being intoxicated, and Emmet Pearce, charged with striking a sentinel. Both young men are privates in the Petersburg Grays, and both plead guilty to the charge preferred against them. The finding of the court-martial will be transmitted to the Adjutant-General and the Governor. If the officers confirm the finding of the court, they will direct the city sergeant to execute the sentence. The verdict of the court was not made public. The court was composed as follows: Judge-Advocate, Captain Skipton, with the scientific aspects of temperance. Dr. Taylor is one of the most distinguished graduates of Yale University, and has devoted the greater part of his public life to the study and discussion of the physical, mental and moral constitution of men. All the expenses of these lectures have been provided for by private subscriptions and no admission fee will be charged.

JEWEL PRESENTATION.

Rev. J. E. Cook Honored by Union Council—New Officers.

Union Council, No. 51, Royal Arcanum, had a splendid meeting Tuesday night. Among the incidents of interest was the presentation of a handsome gold treasure watch charm to Rev. J. E. Cook, upon his retirement from the orator's chair in consequence of his having accepted a pastoral call at Clifton Forge. The presentation speech was made by Hon. D. C. Richardson, a member of the council, and it was a most appropriate and touching tribute to the speaker. Mr. Cook's response was feeling and appropriate. Rev. R. B. Eggleston, the newly elected chairman of the council, also expressed in feeling terms the deep regret of the council at the departure of Mr. Cook.

Mr. W. M. Bickers, grand orator of the Arcanum, was introduced and cordially welcomed, and in his address complimented Union Council upon their great prosperity and dwelt upon the principles and success of the great Arcanum brotherhood. He declared that the exercises in connection with the presentation of the watch charm to Rev. J. E. Cook was among the most impressive he had ever witnessed in a fraternal order, and that they emphasized the beauty and power of royal brotherhood.

Dr. Taylor's Lectures.
Editor of The Times-Dispatch:
Sir,—Permit me, through your columns, to call the attention of the community to a series of free lectures on temperance by Rev. Dr. Taylor, of Boston, in the Seventh Street Christian Church, beginning to-morrow night. These lectures will have no reference to the question of prohibition, but will deal only with the scientific aspects of temperance. Dr. Taylor is one of the most distinguished graduates of Yale University, and has devoted the greater part of his public life to the study and discussion of the physical, mental and moral constitution of men. All the expenses of these lectures have been provided for by private subscriptions and no admission fee will be charged.
